

Reporting Procedure for ECU Events.

The ECU Arbiters' Council kindly asks Chief Arbiters of ECU Events to send the necessary reports following the completion of ECU Tournaments, in following manner:

1. The GDPR consent has to be filled and signed by each and every arbiter.

This form can be found on the ECU website.

All those forms are to be sent to Mr. Johann Poecksteiner, the ECU Data Protection Officer (poecksteiner@chess-vienna.at).

If an arbiter had already filled this consent during a previous ECU Event, it is not required from him to fill it again.

If an arbiter doesn't wish to fill and/or sign the GPRD consent, he/she can still perform as an arbiter during ECU events, however he/she will be not evaluated, and will not be included in the Arbiters' Councils database.

In the future, the refraining arbiter will not be proposed by the ECU Arbiters' Council for any position in future ECU Events.

2. The evaluation form for arbiters in ECU Events can be found on the ECU website.
